DAVIS THEATRE.

Last Chance to See the Two Res Keystone With Charlie Chaplin To-

Everyone in Norwich is goina around with a smile on their faces these days and if you ask them the reason they will tell you to go to the Davis and see the Keystone comedy in two reels called Dough and Dynamite, with Charlie Chaplin and Chester Condon. This picture is without a doubt the funniest picture ever seen here. Charlie surpasses all his previous efforts in this picture and the whole two thousand feet of film there isn't one moment that you can there isn't one moment that you can let up on the laughter, the other night the laughter was so loud that the theatre orchestra could not hear what

For the first half of next week an excellent vaudeville show has been booked with the three Conway Sisters as the headliners. Watch Monday's Bulletin for particulars.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Tom Moore and Alice Joyce Appear ing in "The Brand," Two Reels.

Everyone will enjoy the tremendous drama presented at the Colonial theatre today by Alice Joyce and Tom Moore under the title of The Brand In this production, Alice Joyce plays the part of Mary, the daughter of the backwoods, Tom playing the part of a young millicnaire. Mary's stepmother causes her to be sent to the reformatory upon false charges, and while there she is forced to associate with Rose Hayden, a girl of vicious temperment and altogether dangerous. Rose sets fire to the institution and the blame falls on Mary. Mary's heroism, however, prevents any loss of life. She is released for her bravery and secures a situation in a family where she becomes governess. The son of the family is smitten with the poor girl, and just as he is about to take her for the light Posse annexes. Everyone will enjoy the tremendous where she becomes governess. AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Big Feature Coming Monday. Another extraordinary musical come-dy sensation is coming to this popular playhouse on rext Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when Mr. Stuart Col-lins will present The Lunch Room Cabaret, featuring the initiable com-edian, Marry Ladell, supported by a company of ten clever people. The Lunch Room Cabaret is without a doubt the last word in minature mu-sical comedy and is the most ex-pensive show this theatre has booked in, a long time.

A full truck load of scenery is carried for this show and the cos-tumes are many and designed by one of the swellest shops in New York. Every girl in the chorus is a pipin and there is not a dull moment from the beginning to the end of the play. There is a cleverly written plot running throughout in which plenty of opportunity is offered for Harry Ladell to display his natural humor and also his own peculiar style of dancing, which has made him famous also his own peculiar style of dancing, which has made him famous among theatre goers in the larger cities for the past few years. The song numbers are all written especially for this piece and are well handled by the principles and chorus of six dashing girls who are full of life, and put a snap and go to their work which cannot help being commented upon This not help being commented upon. This musical farce comedy is personally known to the management and is without a doubt one of the best shows the Auditorium has ever secured. There will be three shows daily at the Steel Arrows from Airships. Steel Arrows from Airsnips.

The steel arrow used by German military aviators is an interesting reversion to mediaeval methods. But the most remarkable of hand-thrown steel missiles is the disc of the Sikhs. Formerly this was the most terrible weapon of that warlike people, though various Hindu races have known it for centuries. Vishnu rimself is somesometimes represented holding a disc in each hand.

the Auditorium has ever secured. There will be three shows daily at the usual hours, and no advance in prices even though the cost of the show exceeds by far the usual amount of the average bill.

There will also be four reels of the best Universal photoplays on Monday and Tuesday, including a great comedy reel by the new L.-KO company with Billie Richie and Germany wit a very pretty equifiristic novelty, and Rob. Barton in some capitol resitations. The War News reel will be shown today also and Mary Fuller will be seen in a very interesting Indian drama in two reels.

Eat Your Favorite Fond and Never Fear After-Distress

There is a way for you to eat whatever your stomach craves and do it over again the next day. Many will say "How I wish I could but I have tried and every time it nearly kills

The real trouble is that people who suffer the untold agony of indigestion, do not properly care for the stomach. Every stomach has a lot of work to perform in digesting the food and if crowded with extra labor it rebels and kicks up a fearful disturbance. Mi-o-na, a simple, harmless, inex-pensive and most effective prescription, easily obtained at any drug store, will quickly stop this disturbance. Mi-o-na was especially prepared to regulate out-of-order stomachs. It not only helps the over-worked digestive organs by increasing the flow of gasorgans by increasing the now of gas-tric juices, but surely and safely builds up and strengthens the stom-ach walls so that the stomach can care for the food as nature intended. It's needless for you to suffer with indigestion, heartburn, billouswith indigestion, heartburn, biliousness, sour, gassy or upset stomach, for Mi-o-na should give prompt and lasting relief. Do not delay but get some of these health-restoring tablets from Lee & Osgood today. If Mi-o-na does not banish all stomach distress, there will not be a penny of expense.
